

This is a limited subject index to the DHP Directory using information and terms provided to us by the participating repositories. It is meant to provide pointers to topics that are well-documented in the region's archives. It is by no means comprehensive. If your institution is included in this directory and you would like to add or revise index terms for your material, please contact Susan D'Entremont Regional Archivist (518) 438-2500 or SD'Entremont@cdlc.org.
