

Copyright for Digital Projects

Sponsored by the Capital District Library Council

Tuesday, March 31, 2009 ❖ 9:00 am - 4:00 pm
At CDLC Headquarters

Presented by Peter B. Hirtle
Intellectual Property Officer for the Cornell University Library

This workshop will include:

- introduction to basic copyright law
- fair use and public domain issues
- methods for assessing the copyright status of materials
- issues associated with particular formats

Peter Hirtle also serves as the Technology Strategist for the Library's Public Services and Assessment Division and is the bibliographer for United States and General History. He is currently a member of the Copyright Office's Section 108 Study Group and is a contributing author to the LibraryLaw.com blog. Finally, he is the compiler of the ever-useful Copyright Term and the Public Domain in the United States chart.

Cost is $40 for CDLC members/$60 for non-members (includes lunch).

Copyright for Digital Projects

PROGRAM REGISTRATION FORM

To register, complete this form and send it to the address below, along with your check for $40 members/ $60 non-members made out to "CDLC." Registration deadline is March 24, 2009.

NAME: _____
ADDRESS: _____
INSTITUTION: _____
PHONE: _____ EMAIL: _____

Return this form to: Susan D'Entremont, CDLC, 28 Essex Street, Albany, NY 12206